AUGUST 28, 2016

I. ROLL CALL

Absences: Vendarryl Jenkins, Shaun Kenney, Anna Cavanaugh, Will Rainey, Maggie Rowe, Hannah Chacon, Stephanie Roe

II. COMMUNITY INPUT

None.

III. OFFICER REPORTS

- A. Katharine Graham—Vice Chair for Community Relations, ARCH
Green Dot co-sponsorship training event will be held from 12:00-4 :00 on September 4. Committee members and support officers are encouraged to attend the event.

- B. Ariana Zetlin—Vice Chair for Education, EDUC
SACH meeting was held today. There was a great turnout and there was positive feedback on the presentations. See Ariana if you want to participate in other education presentations this week.
Lawn Chats are also coming up for 1st year residents. Tis year, three hours will be blocked off at different points during the week of September 5-9. The purpose of the lawn chats is not for recruitment or case-processing, but to teach the incoming 1st-year class about the honor system at UVA. Committee members are encouraged to sign up to participate in the events.

- C. Sarah Wyckoff—Vice Chair for Investigations, CLAS
No new reports have come in. Emails were sent for I-panel availability so that committee members can participate in them when free.

- D. Austin Sim —Vice Chair for Hearings, LAW
None.

- E. Matt West —Chair, CLAS
Emails will be sent on information presented at committee and support officer Orientation Days.
Support Officer Orientation Day on August 21 went very well. Presentation by psychologist Tim Davis presented on empathy training to support officers to prepare them better to work with students. Support Officers also heard from Pat Lampkin, Dean Groves, and broke up into groups to discuss the upcoming year. The executive committee is developing a new accountability system for support officers this year.

IV. REPRESENTATIVE REPORTS

Joe Marchese- Schmitt (BATT): Dorm talks went well, but it was hard to present at certain dorms due to lack of participation from RAs. There is also now an outreach from the committee to present dorm talks at residential colleges.

Charlie Strickland (Darden): Darden had 2nd-year refresher and presentation for exchange students. New students are going to attend orientation and will sign the honor scrolls

Kasey Groves (COMM): The Commerce representatives met with the new Commerce School faculty individually and gave presentation to entire Commerce faculty at their 1st meeting. They will be presenting at an MS in Commerce meeting.

Katharine Graham (ARCH): The Architecture representatives met with the new Architecture School Dean and will be setting up a meeting with the president of the Architecture School student council.

Cameron Kiddy (SEAS): The engineering representatives participated in engineering 1st-year student orientation. They are also reaching out to the dean tomorrow for a meeting and are going by the introduction to engineering sections for all 1st-years to present on Honor.

Olivia Sabik (GSAS): She attended the international graduate student orientation session in the GSAS and presented alongside UJC representatives.

Mia Walker-Atwater (NURS): The Nursing School representatives held a table at the Nursing School activities fair and had a large amount of people sign up for more information.

Ory Streeter (MED): The Medical School started four weeks ago and had honor incorporated in its white coat ceremony for the first time. He also held a presentation for incoming 1st-year medical students and is in the process of recruiting med school students to become support officers.

Alison Stickel (EDUC): The Curry School representatives reached out to the new Curry School Dean and have been giving presentations to Curry students.

V. OLD BUSINESS

None.

VI. NEW BUSINESS

A. Support Officer Recruitment

Jen Yeaton (BATT): information sessions are coming up; push for people to sign up.

B. Faculty Advisory Committee Overview

Corinne Thomas (COMM): She is sending out email for 1st meeting on September 13. The meetings will be held monthly on Tuesdays.

C. Policies and Procedures Subcommittee Update

Chad Hogan (CLAS): The 1st Policies and Procedures sub-committee meeting will be held on August 29 at 7:00 in the Honor Offices.

D. Informed Retraction Working Group Discussion

Sarah Wyckoff: The new group will be looking at bylaw practices for the IR and not at constitutional changes. They are not doing looking at the constitution because the Honor Audit Commission may propose constitutional changes related to the IR at a later time. The group hopes to have recommendations for the committee by the end of January.

VII. COMMUNITY INPUT

A 2nd-year student in the college couldn't participate in support officer selection process last year, but is still very interested in honor and will be taking part in the process this year. He is also a member of the Marching Band, which he believes is sometimes overlooked by Honor. He asked to take Honor posters to hang them around Marching Band practice areas to encourage members to participate in support officer training. Ariana Zetlin (Curry) agreed to raise awareness to the Marching Band about Honor and the student was able to take posters with him.

VIII. CLOSED SESSION
