

Honor Committee Minutes: April 29, 2018

I. Community input

- A. (crickets)
- B. If you are reading this, come to our Committee meetings next semester and come interview to be a Support Officer in the Fall!

Officer Reports

II. Chair:

- A. NA

III. VCE:

- A. Finals Pushes! Thanks everyone that signed up
- B. Continue to sign up and spread the word, make everyone feel happy

IV. VCCR: Partnerships with MRC

- A. History of Honor, met with CLAS '61 grad
- B. No new sponsorships

V. VCI:

- A. 4 new reports
- B. 1 CMD
- C. 1 IR
- D. Expecting 4 IRs
- E. ~Potential~ I Panels

VI. VCH

- A. Student found NG
- B. All cases not in CMD from 2017 exhausted
- C. Almost done with case processing this summer!
- D. NOTE: Honor case processing officially shuts down this Tuesday, starts back up first day of classes in fall

VII. William Donnell COMM: Professor has concerns about diploma giving and having I-Panels on standby to process cases during finals that come up

- A. Answer: Depends on Reporter availability for initial interview as well as the IR period of 7 days
- B. Going as fast as we can for all cases because of due process. I Panel is fine to schedule but it depends on the speediness of the investigation

VIII. SOAL

- A. New SSOs!

New Business

IX. Support Officer Recruitment Strategies

- A. Kevin Warshaw – What UJC looks for in recruits (especially first years)
  - i. Diversity of applicants
  - ii. Ways of reaching out
  - iii. Flyering/chalking – not the most effective way of interacting with people
  - iv. Need to be willing to reach out to people
  - v. Initial poll of applicants – extending the application deadline to get a more diverse pool of applicants

Honor Committee Minutes: April 29, 2018

- vi. Reaching out personally to people – texting, emailing, RAs, connecting with people directly
  - vii. Dividing SO pools – having education/outreach separate
  - viii. Making sure education role is emphasized as important
- B. Harper “Boots on the Ground” North – HRL Vice Chair for Selections
- i. Marketing is a very big priority – spend an entire semester on it
  - ii. Target different groups, community style events – Large info sessions can be intimidating
  - iii. Reach out to friends, also be very intentional about how you portray yourself as an organization
  - iv. Essay and interview because people have different strength
  - v. People selected that are explicitly dedicated to reading applications

Subcommittee/Working Group Reports

X. P&P, FAC, and ASWG

- A. Nothing

XI. Assessment & Data Management

- A. Demographic Work – Timeliness
- B. Collect Data and Analyze Data – not an investigative report
- C. Looking to recreate a demographic form
- D. Looking at crunching numbers beyond a spreadsheet, but also looking at making the numbers accessible
- E. Taking a lot of weight off of the VCI in terms of data collection
- F. Education and Outreach Effectiveness – Keeping track of what events are effective, not effective
- G. Outreach – logging data for Facebook views

XII. Representative Reports

- A. GBUS – Darden SO recruitment, help from Committee Members
- B. ARCH – Chrette: A School outreach event (A School Hell Week) if anyone wants to help
- C. NURS – Nursing School Picnic, Honor swag
- D. SEAS – 6 most recent reports from the Engineering School

XIII. Small Group Brainstorming for Recruitment Outreach

XIV. Community input

- A. (crickets)
- B. If you are reading this, come to our Committee meetings next semester and come interview to be a Support Officer in the Fall!