II. COMMUNITY INPUT

Mitch Wellman: Honor will be co-sponsoring the LGBTQ Center's Let's Get Brunch Together in the Q-mmunity this week. It will take place on Monday, November 14, from 11AM-1PM at Lawn Room 8.

III. OFFICER REPORTS

- A. Katharine Graham— Vice Chair for Community Relations, ARCH
- a. Everyone should attend Let's Get Brunch Together on Monday.
 - b. Reminder that the SARA Breakfast will take place on Friday, November 18 (7:30-9:00AM)
 - c. Green Dot coming to hold a short training session at the next Support Officer pool meeting (Sunday, November 20)
 - d. Exec decided to postpone (most of) Honor Week until the spring
 - i. Look at the Eliminate the Hate Campaign schedule of events, which will take place from Monday through Friday
 - ii. Sign up to volunteer or just show up to provide support.
 - iii. Jennifer Yeaton (BATT) – setting social norms by “voting with your body” is very important. A big turn out is validating for those participating and for passers-by to see.
- B. Ariana Zetlin— Vice Chair for Education, EDUC
- a. Reiterated the push to show up for Eliminate the Hate events this week
 - b. Professor Green's seminar on mindfulness will be delayed; considering rescheduling it during finals.
- C. Matt West— Chair, CLAS
- a. Called for a new volunteer to take minutes. Katie Deal (CLAS) offered to help for the remainder of the semester.
 - b. Updates from Austin Sim (Vice Chair for Hearings, LAW): Committee members who want to observe the open Hearing on Saturday, November 19 should sign up.
 - c. Updates from Sarah Wyckoff (Vice Chair for Investigations, CLAS): IR Working Group meets this Wednesday at 7:30 PM, only a couple in-person meetings left, so attendance is important. The working group is talking about proposed reforms to the “single nexus of events” and many other changes. The working group will present several different proposals for the Committee's review at the beginning of the spring semester
 - i. Ory Streeter (SMED): Added several weeks for Support Officer input
 - d. Will reach out to Tom Faulders about the Lawn/Range rocking chair program, and will talk to Student Financial Services about the Diversity Initiative Award.
 - e. Reiterated support for Eliminate the Hate

IV. REPRESENTATIVE REPORTS

- A. Corinne Thomas (COMM): The Faculty Advisory Committee (FAC) will meet this Wednesday, November 16, at 4PM; Committee members are encouraged to send topics for discussion
- B. Katie Deal (CLAS): The Honor Audit Commission (HAC) survey is going out sometime this week, and the Commission is finalizing the input it received for the survey

V. OLD BUSINESS

- A. Vote on Proposed By-Law Change—Revisions to Executive Committee Drop and Informed Retraction Definitions
 - a. The Committee continued to discuss the proposed By-law changes involving the Executive Committee’s discretion to drop reports in particular cases, as well as updated definitions for By-law terms associated with the Informed Retraction after changes to notice procedures passed in the spring.
 - b. The Committee did not vote on the proposals this week. Matt West (Chair, CLAS) requested that Committee members continue to send their comments and suggestions on the proposed language during the upcoming week, so that the language could be finalized and the Committee can vote on the proposal at next week’s meeting.

VI. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Discussion with School Representatives: Planning Finals Events
